Drawing on January 16, 2016.

THE SALMON RIVER RAFTING COMPANY has generously donated a "Lodge Accommodation" float trip for two on the Salmon River for any regularly scheduled float trip during the 2016 rafting season.

The all inclusive river trip package includes:

- Round trip air taxi from Boise, Idaho to Salmon.
- Accommodations on the first and sixth nights in Salmon at the Stage Coach Inn and four nights in lodges along the river.
- Restaurant dinners and breakfasts before and after the river trip.
- Water proof personal gear bag.
- All river beverages (except hard liquor).
- Jet boat return upstream on last river day, or scenic flight out of the canyon, depending on water levels.

The winner will be responsible for transportation to and from Boise and gratuities. For detailed information on the Salmon River Rafting Company visit www.salmonrafting.com. Through their website you can view a public television documentary on rafting to the historic lodges with the Salmon River Rafting Company.
